

TUESDAY, APRIL 30, 1745.

Recd of a Private Letter from Franckfort, dated April 18. 1745.

THE Night before last the Prince of Conti lay at Biberich, and last Night he set out from thence for Wisbaden, where he remains at present. The whole French Army has Orders to hold itself in Readiness to march; but on what Side, it is impossible to say. That of the Allies remains very quiet in its Quarters near Ehrenbreitstein. The French Troops that have made their March from Bavaria, as well as those lately assembled from Biberich, are in full March for the Palatinate. The common Opinion here is, that they are strong enough to undertake somewhat of Importance. But, on the other Hand, we are assured, the first-mention'd Corps have 18,000 Men. Heels from Count Bathiani's Army, so that they are obliged to march with the utmost Precipitation, and may, very probably, bring these Attendants with them wherever they arrive; so that no more can be justly expected from their Assistance in such Circumstances, which will put the French in two Fires.

Electoral Highness of Bavaria returned from Burg on the 24th to Munich, into which the Prince never entered; because, as I wrote to you before, the Treaty was as good as concluded on the 20th, till it was confirmed by the Court of Vienna. The Elector chose to remain at Augsburg till then. But since this Day-Saturday, equal Reasons have been shewn to the Elector's and the Queen's, and all Things are as still in Bavaria, as if they had lasted a Year; so that we expect little consequence from thence, till the Terms of the Treaty are made publick. It is, however, very difficult the Impression this News has made in the Army of the Prince of Conti; on which, ready talk of passing the Rhine, and withdrawing most Christian Majesty's Troops out of Germany. But till this can be done, they take due Care to be sensible of their being here, by raising, and executing Cruelty, very high Contributions in the Dominions of the Abbot and Prince of the Counties of Isenbourg and Solmes, and other Countries.

Last Advices from Neubourg, dated the 25th Month, are full of Lamentations and Complaints. The Austrians entered, it seems, on the 16th, at the least Opposition, and have lived there since at Discretion; demanding, in the Space of ten Days, by Way of Contribution, 100,000 Rix-dollars. As this is the Fourth Time they have been treated in the Course of the present War, they are extremely apprehensive of falling this Time under Execution; because they are now so poor, that they have wherewithal in the World to satisfy demand. On this Account, the principal Persons of the City have thought fit to retire, and abandon their Houses and Effects to the Mercy of the Victors. The Elector Palatine is excluded the Treaty which was concluded between the Courts of Vienna and France, all the Dominions of that Prince are in the Hands of the Austrians. It is on this Account that all the Palatine Forces, Horse and Foot, detached with Count Segur out of Bavaria, have retired to join, and to march without Delay, to cover the Rhine, where it is expected they will arrive this Week. Some of their Officers being already got thither. We Report here, that a Negotiation has been set on Foot between the Courts of Vienna and France, by the Mediation of Russia; but we do not much Credit to it, because the Remittances from Hamburg and Dantzick are as frequent as

SCOTLAND.

Perthshire, April 23. Last Friday Night died, at his Residence, Alexander Belches of Innermay, Esq; Clerk of the County of Edinburgh. He was born at Wick in Caithness, dated April 1, and that Week a Recruiting Serjeant, with two hundred and ten Recruits, crossing the Pentland Frith in the Orkneys, in a Boat navigated by four Fishermen. A sudden Squall of Wind overset the Boat, where all unfortunately perished.

The Ship Advice of Whitehaven, from Virginia, was, on the 5th Instant, cast away on the Island of Colon; the Master, Mate, and Eight of the Men were drown'd; but a great Part of the Goods are saved.

The James, of Leith, Captain Crawford, arrived at Stromness the 3d Inst. after a Passage of 30 Days from Virginia, and a hourly expected in the Frith.

This Morning the Oudelyck Dutch Auxiliary Man of War arrived in the Frith, and brought under Convoy all the Trade bound from Holland for this Country.

HOME PORTS.

Falmouth, April 25. Wind S. E. Since my last arriv'd the Dover Privateer, of Dover, with a Ship of 400 Tons belonging to Lubbeck, having on board a large Parcel of Spanish Snuff. Also arrived the Elizabeth, Daxon, and the London Packet, Ternon, from Cork for London; who bring Advice, that the Letitia, Mullins, from St. Kitts for London, is arriv'd at Cork.

Plymouth, April 25. Since my last came in the Tavistock Sloop of War from Spithead, bound to the Westward; and the Katherine, Talbot, from Wexford for London. Sailed his Majesty's Ships Chester, Canterbury, and Sunderland, for the Westward; the Judith, Holland, and the Eliza and Martha, Wood, both for Barbados; the Expedition, ———, for Virginia; the James, Ball, for South Carolina, and two other Outward-bound Ships. Sailed the Bridgewater Man of War on a Cruise to the Westward. Just arriv'd the Nonpareil, Tucker, from Antigua.

Weymouth, April 27. Wind N. E. On the 25th put into this Harbour the Charming Sally, Jenkins, from Carmarthen for London.

Pool, April 27. Wind N. N. E. Sailed the Dolphin, Farwell, the Joseph and Hannah, Anfly, the Adventure, White, the Scipio, Durell, the Samuel and Dove, Elmes, the Mary, Pibin, the Hanover, Pike, the Joseph and Benjamin, Lintorn, the George and Sarah, Smith, the Love, Bailey, the ———, Olive, the Maria, Hooper, the Speedwell, Pottle, and the Sylvia, Croucher, for Newfoundland.

Cowes, April 24. Wind E. Yesterday came in the Peggy, Blair, from Havre for Dumfries; who lost her Main and Mizzen Mast by a Ship running on board her in the Chanel. Sailed the John and John, Bridge, for Waterford.

Dover, April 28. Sailed from the Road the Hannah, Buck, from Liverpool, and the two Venetian Ships from the Sreighs, all for London. Remain in the Road the True Briton Privateer. Came in the Sarah and Bridget, Gunson, for London; and the Carter, Anderson, for Dunkirk, both of and from Gottenburgh; the last sent in by the Swift Privateer, Capt. Hudson.

P. S. The imperfect Accounts I have sent you these two Days past was owing to the bad Weather; you see the two Leghorn Men are turn'd into Venetians; there is a Third after, near 700 Tons burden, also bound to London, belonging to Venice.

Deal, April 27. Wind N. E. and blows hard. His Majesty's Ship Duke, and the Outward-bound, remain as per last.

Deal, April 28. Wind S. S. W. Remain the Duke Man of War, the Dorothy and Elizabeth, Simpson, and the Providence, Burne, both for Virginia.

Arriv'd,

At Hull, the Good Intent, Cook, from Gottenburgh.

LONDON.

There are private Letters from Hanover which say, that on the 19th Instant, N. S. a large Sum of Money that had been paid into the Hands of a Saxon Commissary, had been seized upon him in the Prussian Territories; but, upon an Application made to his Majesty, Orders were given for his being instantly set at Liberty. The same Letters say, that Lieutenant-General Iton is set out for Flanders.

We learn from the Army of the Allies on the Rhine, that the Troops of Munster are at present in the Principality of Siegen; from whence it is believed, since the Conclusion of a Peace with the Elector of Bavaria, they will have Orders, without delay, to join the Army, and even to enter upon Action.

They write from Paris, that the famous M. de la Valieue, Lieutenant-General of the Artillery, who had the Disposition of the Batteries at the Battle of Dettingen, has declin'd Service, on the Score of his great Age, and many other Infirmities; from whence it is doubted, whether Sieges will be carried on with the same Spirit as they were last Campaign.

We are assured by such as have lately seen the French

Army in Flanders, that most of their Regiments of Foot are thin, and make but a very indifferent Figure; and, at the same time, the Desertion among them is so great, that upwards of 200 in a Week have arriv'd at Brussels.

Some private Advices from the Hague say, that the Election of the Grand Duke of Tuscany to the Imperial Dignity, is a Point settled; and that the Electors of Mentz, Trier, and Cologne, will assist in Person at the Election.

The Jamaica Sloop of War, Capt. Jefferies, cruizing off Scarborough, engaged three Privateers, who bore down on him; one a Dogger, of 8 Carriage and 12 Swivel Guns, and 68 Men; a Cutter, 4 Carriage Guns, and 40 Men; and a Shallop, 4 Carriage Guns, and 38 Men. The latter she has taken, and brought into the Humber; the other got away, as would this, if she had not carried away his Mainmast Head, and received a Shot between Wind and Water in her Hold. She is called the Three Brothers, Capt. Batchelor. The Captain says, the Night before there were Seven Privateers in Company, Two of 20 Guns each, 250 Men, and cruize between Falmorough and Cromer. The Gibraltar and Shoreham will sail immediately from Hull in Quest of them.

We hear from Bristol, that the Three Women under Sentence of Death in Newgate there, are Reprieved, in order to be Transported for 14 Years.

They write from Norwich, that last Thursday Seven-night died Mrs. Gurdon, Relict of Thornhugh Gurdon, Esq; and last surviving Daughter of Sir William Cook, late of Broom Hall, in the County of Norfolk, Barr.

Yesterday the following Gentlemen were, in pursuance of his Grace the Lord Archbishop of Canterbury's Fiats, admitted Procurators General of the Archepiscopal Court of Canterbury; viz.

Mr. John Trenley,	Mr. William Abbot,
Mr. George Bellas,	Mr. Thomas Tyndall,

Mr. Nathaniel Bishop,	Mr. Josias Farrer,
Mr. John Smith,

Last Saturday died, after a lingering Illness, at his House in Grosvenor Square, the Right Hon. the Lord Viscount Maynard.

Last Sunday a poor Woman was found dead on Windmill Hill. She was seen the Night before, near that Place, very much in Liquor.

His Majesty has been pleas'd to appoint Charles Wiere, Esq; to be Governor of Blackness Castle in Scotland.

The Right Hon. the Earl of Granville will set out the Beginning of next Week for Aix la Chapelle, in order to make use of the Waters there for the Recovery of his Health.

Yesterday a Party of the Guards march'd off the Parade in St. James's Park, in order to reinforce the Garrison at Windsor Castle.
